Targi Książki sp. z o.o. – organizer of the Warsaw Book Fair and promoter of reading in Poland

The Warsaw Book Fair is a leading international fair event held annually in Poland since 2010, but the tradition of organizing international book fairs in Warsaw in May dates back to 1950s. The organizer – Targi Książki sp. z o.o. is a company established by a group of prominent Polish publishers and a Warsaw-based fair organizer – Murator EXPO. Apart from the Warsaw Book Fair the company Targi Książki co-organizes the Silesian Book Fair in Katowice and regional book festivals in Gdynia and Szczecin.

In the Polish market we stand out due to:
• a combination of many years of experience in organizing fairs with a strong knowledge of the needs of the book market
• the ability to create events with a solid business potential, well received among the general public and the media

Advantages & unique benefits

• Several dozen years of May book fairs in Warsaw
• Majority of well-known Polish publishers, authors and literary agents and huge audience
• Strong international aspect – exhibitors and visitors from more than 20 countries
• A rich programme of accompanying events for readers and representatives of the publishing, bookselling and printing industry, e.g. Science and Academic Book Day, Comic Book Warsaw Festival, Literary Festival for Children, 25 prestigious nominations, competitions and award ceremonies
• Unconventional, highly attractive fair venue – PGE Narodowy – National Stadium in the very centre of the city
